

KS2 Living in the wider world

Year 5

Year 6

Both

LKS2

Building on Key Stage 1, pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

L1. to research, discuss and debate topical issues, problems and events that are of concern to them and offer their recommendations to appropriate people

L2. why and how rules and laws that protect them and others are made and enforced, why different rules are needed in different situations and how to take part in making and changing rules

L3. to understand that there are basic human rights shared by all peoples and all societies and that children have their own special rights set out in the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child

L4. that these universal rights are there to protect everyone and have primacy both over national law and family and community practices

L5. to know that there are some cultural practices which are against British law and universal human rights, such as female genital mutilation (FGM)

L6. to realise the consequences of anti-social, aggressive and harmful behaviours such as bullying and discrimination of individuals and communities; to develop strategies for getting support for themselves or for others at risk

L7. that they have different kinds of responsibilities, rights and duties at home, at school, in the community and towards the environment; to continue to develop the skills to exercise these responsibilities

L8. to resolve differences by looking at alternatives, seeing and respecting others' points of view, making decisions and explaining choices

L9. what being part of a community means, and about the varied institutions that support communities locally and nationally

L10. to recognise the role of voluntary, community and pressure groups, especially in relation to health and wellbeing

L11. to appreciate the range of national, regional, religious and ethnic identities in the United Kingdom

L12. to consider the lives of people living in other places, and people with different values and customs

L13. about the role money plays in their own and others' lives, including how to manage their money and about being a critical consumer

L14. to develop an initial understanding of the concepts of 'interest', 'loan', 'debt', and 'tax' (e.g. their contribution to society through the payment of VAT)

L15. that resources can be allocated in different ways and that these economic choices affect individuals, communities and the sustainability of the environment across the world

L16. what is meant by enterprise and begin to develop enterprise skills

L17. to explore and critique how the media present information January 2017 additions:

L18. to critically examine what is presented to them in social media and why it is important to do so; understand how information contained in social media can misrepresent or mislead; the importance of being careful what they forward to others
